

An Announcement Regarding AAPM's Executive Director

August 10, 2026

Dear Colleagues and Friends,

I am writing to inform you that David Gammel, AAPM's Executive Director, has decided to leave AAPM to take on a new leadership role. David has agreed to remain engaged as Executive Director to help ensure an orderly transition, working closely with the Board and staff.

On behalf of the Board and our members, I want to thank David for his leadership and dedication to AAPM over the past two and a half years. He has been instrumental in enhancing AAPM's ability to support and advance our profession. We wish him great success in this next chapter.

Consistent with AAPM's succession practices, the Executive Officers, in collaboration with the Board, will begin the process of identifying our next Executive Director. Interim leadership arrangements are under consideration to ensure strong, steady leadership throughout the transition. The permanent search will include forming a search committee of Board members and other AAPM leaders.

We are committed to an orderly, inclusive process and to the continuity of AAPM's operations, volunteer activities, and strategic priorities throughout the transition. We will keep you informed as this process develops.

Thank you, as always, for your engagement with and support of AAPM.

Sincerely,

Robin Miller
President, AAPM
and the Executive Team

Andrew Maidment, M. Mahesh, Sonja Dieterich, Sam Armato, Eric Ford, and Julianne Pollard-Larkin